Who You Gonna Call?

This month's edition of the Communicator is dedicated to ensuring you have all the right contact details for when you might need your local police teams, or other groups who help us out.

On the previous page you have the contact details for every Safer Neighbourhood Team in Hillingdon. They cover the 22 wards in the Borough and if you don't know which ward you live in, you can Google it very easily. I have also included the email addresses for the local sergeants, should you need to escalate anything.

Other useful contacts:

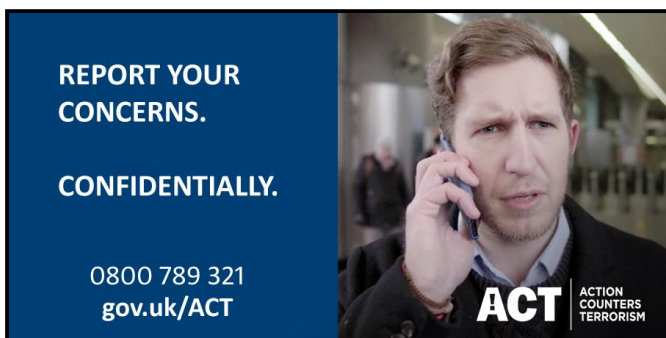

If you live vicariously through your smartphone (who doesn't?☺) then online reporting may be useful to you. You can report a number of crimes or antisocial behaviour to the police at:

www.met.police.uk/ro/report/ocr/af/how-to-report-a-crime/#

Don't worry about that long URL. Just Google "reporting online" and it should come up near the top of your search.

Some bad behaviour is investigated by the council. You can reach them at www.hillingdon.gov.uk or on 01895 250111. Their Twitter page is also very responsive @Hillingdon.

All of you receiving this newsletter will be on O.W.L. but you might not necessarily be in a Neighbourhood Watch Scheme. Joining up is a great way to do your bit locally to help us and your neighbours. The Hillingdon Neighbourhood Watch website is very informative and the place to go to find out how to join or set up a watch: www.hillingdonnhw.co.uk

Ring CrimeStoppers if for whatever reason you don't want to speak to us directly. The information is passed to us to investigate but remember you won't get any feedback.

Finally, whilst you all are aware of the advantages of the O.W.L. system, there are lots out there who are not. Please tell your friends and family to sign up.
