

Hillingdon's Beat

Like every month before, there are some great examples of our cop's hard work and heroics this month:

Where are those officers? Whilst the residents of Eastcote slept, the local Safer Neighbourhood teams, led by PC Maz Solanki were working 8 night shifts targeting an emerging drug problem in the area. Utilising a number of tactics including plain clothes patrols and high speed pursuit vehicles, as well as good old fashioned leg work, they were able to be quite the nuisance. In total 117 people were stopped and searched, resulting in many positive outcomes which are currently progressing through the courts. Well done to Maz and his team.

Early to rise. At the other end of the clock, Sgt Jim Last and DS Wendy Bassett were targeting multiple addresses in the north of the borough combating the risk of being dragged into crime for young people. A 5am start for the officers was promptly followed by many doors being "knocked" (we bring our own key☺) and 11 arrests being made. Again, cases are still being progressed but these images give you an idea of what was seized.

Specials making the difference. Many people give their free time to being Special Constables. Having the full powers of a constable, our Specials in Hillingdon are really making the difference. Their last arrest was part of a fugitive hunt, catching and arresting a man who had breached his suspended sentence for burglary. A night in the cells and back to court for that chap.

Another fugitive banged up. PC Stuart Worrell continues his crusade against the villains of Hayes. Most recently, he was back in the custody suite with a man wanted for armed robbery. If cops got paid bonuses for the number of times they nick people, PC Worrell would be a rich man. Good job.

And another... PC Worrell again, this time stopping and arresting this person who was wanted by the courts three times and had tried to make his escape on the bus down Coldharbour Lane. Not this time chummy.

And yet another (sharing it around this time)...

There seems to be a theme here. This person was happy to see PC Dmitruczak and PC Fear when they told him he was wanted in Essex for failing to appear at Crown Court. Don't worry, we made sure he got there this time. Bad boys, bad boys, what you gonna do when they come for you?

Rob's Rapport

I am not going to apologise for giving out these contact details again. Please use them, trying to shortcut the system by ringing me whilst I lounge on a sunbed in Portugal is never going to work ☺
