

Rob's Last Rapport

After nearly 32 years of service with the Metropolitan Police it is time for me to hang up my handcuffs and move on. In February I will be starting a period of accumulated annual leave prior to my official retirement at the end of March. This will be my last Communicator. Thank you all for reading my missives over the past 3 ½ years and I hope you have found them useful. I am confident that my replacement will take up the baton and soon be sending you their version of the Communicator.

The world keeps turning and everything moves on and. With that in mind, I want to wish continued good fortune to all of the hard working and heroic colleagues that make working for this organisation so rewarding.

All the very best.

Inspector Rob Bryan

Hillingdon's Beat

Our dedicated Partnership Tasking Team, funded by the council and led by Sgt Ed Ade, recently concluded a 4-month operation in Hayes combating drug supply and violence. They undertook a range of tactics including executing search warrants and pro-active patrols and stop and search. Just under 200 people were searched, 439 wraps of cocaine and heroin, along with £7380 cash were seized as well as a range of weapons including knives and axes.

Six addresses had their doors bashed down during early morning raids, the team took nine vehicles off the roads and nine penalty notices were issued to those who thought causing antisocial behaviour would go unchallenged. During one incident an unmarked police vehicle was rammed by a stolen car but fortunately no officers were hurt.

The operation netted 52 arrests for offences including possession of offensive weapons and possession with intent to supply Class A drugs. Weel done team.

Thankyou

Finally, a really big thank you to everyone who offers their own time to helps us. The chairpersons and members of the Safer Neighbourhood Board, the Independent Advisory Group and Ward Panels. Hillingdon Neighbourhood Watch steering group and their army of co-ordinators. Our OWL co-ordinators. The volunteers who used to open the front desks in Ruislip and Northwood. Your scrutiny, advice and help was greatly appreciated.
